Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document, written on aged, yellowed paper. The text is mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. Some words are difficult to decipher but appear to include "My dear", "I have", "received", "from", "you", "the", "sum", "of", "one", "hundred", "dollars", "which", "I", "acknowledge", "with", "thanks", "and", "am", "glad", "to", "hear", "from", "you", "and", "hope", "you", "are", "well", "I", "am", "yours", "truly", "John", "Doe".
